GIRL SCOUT TROOP 1 OF BAY ST. LOUIS-AN OFFICIAL HISTORY

TN the Spring of 1932, Miss Helen Vaughn, a teacher in Bay Hi School, organized the first successful Girl Scout Troop in Bay St. Louis. Miss Vaughn, with the aid of Mrs. J. B. Goldman and Mrs. Laurent Dickson, who were to serve as lieutenants, succeeded in gaining the sponsorship of the Bay P.T. A. for the troop. A troop committee was soon formed by several members of the P. T. A. who were most interested in scouting. The members were Mrs. J. A. Evans, Mrs. E. S. Drake, Mrs. Porter Barnes, Mrs. Carl Olson and Mrs. L. W. Jacobs.

The first troop meeting was held at Bay High School on April 8, 1932. At this meeting the principles of scouting were thoroughly explained to the twenty-one girls who attend-

On the thirtieth of the following month the troop was officially established when the girls, namely Alice Vivian Evans, Josie Olson, Kathryn Heideman, Caroline and Cora Griffith, Lois Inez Wright, Annie Sue Ingram and Rose Barnes. The other two original members of the troop were Bernice and Elearnor Jacobs, both of whom had advanced to second class rating in a troop in Norfolk, Virginia.

Among the first activities of the troop was a four-day camping trip The troop was given the use of the Benard Cottage in Waveland. Miss! Vaughn and Miss Mary Gordon were in charge of the twenty-one campers and were assisted by Mrs. L. W. Jacobs, Mrs. C. M. Shipp, and Mrs. Carl Olson.

Shortly after the close of the turned to her home in northern Mis- home on Waveland beach on the sissippi. Mrs. Dickson retained her position as lieutenant.

For the remainder of the year the scouts met weekly in the de active in many ways which helped to establish for them an eminent position in the life of the community.
